

From Guidelines to Nutritional Pathways in Oncology: Taking Action to Improve Patient Care

Join an international group of healthcare professionals from various specialties in oncology care. The event aims to inspire and enable concrete steps towards better implementation of prompt nutritional support to improve patient outcomes.

PROGRAM

8:15 - 8:45 Walk in and coffee
8:45 - 9:00 Welcome and introduction

9:00 - 10:05 SETTING THE SCENE

Early nutritional support is a must-have in cancer care

Prof Maurizio Muscaritoli

Director of Internal Medicine and Clinical Nutrition Unit, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy

Taking action to shape practice: where to start?

Prof Carla Prado

Director of the Human Nutrition Research unit, University of Alberta, Canada

Improving patient care: a collaborative journey with patients

Jan Hobbelen

Director of the Dutch Ostomy Association and the Dutch Colon Cancer Foundation Randstad, The Netherlands

Q&A

10:05 - 10:25 Break

10:25 - 11:20 IMPLEMENTING NUTRITIONAL SUPPORT IN CANCER CARE: INSPIRATION ACROSS EUROPE

Onco Nutritional Pathways - Perspective from an oncologist (Portugal Best Practice)

Dr Andreia Capela

Medical Oncologist, Department of Medical Oncology, Hospital de Vila Nova de Gaia/Espinho, Portugal

Cancer Nutrition Program implementation - experience from a French cancer centre

Dr Pierre Senesse

Head of Clinical Nutrition and Gastroenterology, Cancer Institute of Montpellier, France

Q&A

11:20 - 12:20 RESEARCH AND INNOVATION CENTER DISCOVERY TOUR

12:20 - 13:20 Lunch and marketplace

13:20 - 15:20 COUNTRY WORKSHOP: TAKING ACTION AS A MULTIDISCIPLINARY TEAM TO OPTIMIZE CLINICAL PRACTICE

15:20 - 16:00 WRAP UP & CLOSING, GROUP PHOTO - DEPARTURE TO AIRPORT

Expert Day
November 25th

Location:

Danone Research & Innovation
Uppsalalaan 12, 3584 CT Utrecht
The Netherlands